

13 Absolutes

The LORD is an eternal infinite God of absolute Truth. The God of Truth is absolute, eternal certainty, and verity. The Hebrew word for Truth is "Eh-Meth" from the root word Aw-Man, meaning certainty, permanence, and verity.

The term "Tree of Life", in the Hebrew "Khaw-Yaw" means a plural, absolute state, or a perfect, complete whole; pure, not mixed, not limited, not conditional. It is unrestricted, positive, certain, definite, actual, real, and not dependent on anything else. It also means to loosen, to disentangle, unbound, and unfettered.

The LORD God is a self-existent one, who is completely uncontrolled by anything or any other being: He is absolute sovereignty who makes eternal decrees, which are uncontrolled or unchecked by anyone. His is unlimited faith, and He is an absolute God!

The Words of God's mouth are absolute, and they lack nothing needed to perform that thing where unto they are sent.

The LORD God is an Absolute, a complete independent whole.

The LORD God is Absolute, unconditional, and infinite.

The LORD God is the Absolute law of love.

The LORD God is the Absolute breath of all existence.

He is the Absolute cause of all life.

He is the Absolute strength of the center in His Purposive Will.

He is the Absolute gravity of His Master Plan.

He is the Absolute owner of all motion.

He is the Absolute space that holds all created bodies or objects.

He is the Absolute equilibrium of all balance.

He is the Absolute equation of all judgment.

He is the Absolute progenitor of all Truth.

He is the Absolute womb of all rest and peace.